Brisbane EKKA August 11th – 19th 2006

The Australian School of Whipcracking and Top Chick Management are offering a once only opportunity for interested members of the community to perform in front of 40,000 people in the Main Arena of the RNA Showgrounds.

Whiptacular will showcase original synchronised whipcracking displays never performed before in the Main Arena at this years Brisbane Royal Show from August 11th – 19th.

Whiptacular is a community performance project involving up to 240 whipcracking volunteers. Three groups of 60-80 participants will each perform in a 15 minute show for 3 consecutive nights at this year's Ekka.

Choreographed line formations along with spectacular lighting effects on reflective whips contribute to a pure Australian country themed modern whipcracking performance. The use of humour and patriotic Australian themes will captivate a main arena audience.
