Ekka memories a tree-mendous Christmas gift

Give the gift of Royal Queensland Show (Ekka) memories this Christmas, with 2017 passes on sale from today until mid-December, at discounted 2016 prices.

The Ekka 2017 tickets feature Christmas designs and come ready to gift in red envelopes or as e-tickets, so Queenslanders can spoil their children or grandchildren this festive season.

It's also the public's last chance to snap up tickets at the 2016 pre-Ekka price of 15 per cent off.

The Christmas themed passes are available in five ticket types - Adult, Child, Concession, Family and Adult + Child - with Adult tickets costing just $26.35 and a Child pass only $17, to enjoy up to 12 hours of entertainment including the world-class night show.

Both the Ekka and Christmas day are all about lighting up smiles and making memories that last a lifetime, so the tickets are a fitting festive season gift.

The passes will also bring joy to parents and grandparents, who get to see the excitement on their children or grandchildren's faces twice - at Christmas and at Ekka next year.

There are more than 300 free things to do and see at the show, including the much-loved RACQ Animal Nursery, plus there'll be new and exciting entertainment and activities in 2017.

The Christmas themed tickets can be purchased online until Thursday December 15 by visiting www.ekka.com.au/2017-tickets
